

Analyzing the Global Perception of U.S. Credibility Post-Afghanistan WithdrawalMiss Eesha Parveen

Business Department, School of Management, Forman Christian College
(A Chartered University) Lahore, Pakistan

Abstract

Afghanistan, legitimately the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan, is an enclosed country at the junctions of Central and South Asia. A country rich and famous for its minerals. Country which is under tremendous war and bloodshed from almost last forty years. But still people with high hope and with great courage bearing this horrific situation. NATO has got this right to invade the region which is a global threat and this is what it did with Afghanistan. After 9\11 the tension reached to its peak and with the slogan “either you are with us or against us” by America the whole world divided into two but although having this much concrete cause it never met a decent end. The withdrawal of the US has already aroused several haunting questions in the mind of world. But the role of diplomacy can never be thwarted.

Keywords: International Relations, NATO, Global Threats, Afghanistan, Pakistan